Re: Xiamin Zeng a/k/a v. New York City Housing Authority
No. 18-CV12008 (AKH)(JLC)
Request to Adjourn Status Conference

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

I am counsel for Plaintiff Zeng, a/k/a Zane, in the above-referenced matter.

I write to you with Defendant's consent pursuant to the Court's Individual Rules to seek an adjournment of the June 11, 2021, status conference. I seek the adjournment because of a scheduling conflict and to allow the parties more time to consider possible mediation and engage in possible settlement negotiations. I request that the Court reschedule the status conference to Friday, June 25, 2021, or to a date of the Court's preference.

This is the Plaintiff's third request for an adjournment in this case. Both of the previous requests were granted by the Court. The first request was to extend Plaintiff's time to complete fact discovery, which since has been completed. The second adjournment request was due to a scheduling conflict.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/ G. Oliver Koppell
